

Vanessa Carlton - Ordinary Day

```
Tom: C Take hand my
C - 0102xx
F2 - 1103xx
G - 3100x3
                                                                     F Live while you can
Am - 01220x
    - xxx331
                                                                 DOn't you see your dreams lie right in the palm of your hand?
    - 0102x3
                                                                C F G C F G
F - 0123xx
    - 01030x
     - 01023x
Dm
    - 1120xx
                                                                 Verse II
   - 3340xx
G
                                                                C Dm C F x 4
   - 33002x
     - 1123xx
G7F - 1000x1
                                                                 Bridge:
   - xx553x
                                                                      G G C
                                                                                   Dm F C
Verses I, II, and III:
                                                                 Please come with me see what I see \
  Just a day, just an ordinary day. Just trying to get Touch the stars for time will not
                                                                 G G7 C C G G
Time will not flee can't you see?
  Just a boy just an ordinary boy, but he was looking to
                                                                 Verse III
                   \mathsf{Am}
                                                                 Chorus
  As he asked if I would come along I started to realize
                                                                 C Dm C F x 3
 That everyday he findsjust what he's looking for Just a day just an ordinary day just trying to get by Like a shooting star he shines and he said..
                                                                 just a boy just an ordinary boy
CHORUS:
                                                                 Ce F C G (
but he was looking to the sky
C F G
```

Acordes

