

Vanguart - Dolores

```
Tom: Gb
                                                       I swear it's not any kind of joke
                                   C )
                                                       (intro)
 (com acordes na forma de
Capostraste na 6º casa
 (capo 6º casa)
                                                               Am
                                                       Now he's on the road again
(intro) C G Am Em F G C G
                                                       F G C
                                                       looking for someone
  G Am
              Em
                                                       C G Am Em
I know my words are sick
                                                       To buy his dreams
  G C G
                                                       F G C
well, so do I
                                                       and ears and thumbs
But come gather 'round n? I'll tell a tale
                                                       Someone to care for him
about a man that sold his eyes
                                                       Not to leave him lost in sin
             Bb7
                                                                    Bb7
                                                       Neither in pain or happiness
To lose weight and to get cute
             Bb7
To reach a girl who's just like you (intro)
             Bb7
To forget a girl he never had
                                                               Am Em
                                                       Life is nothing but a joke F G C G
(intro)
                                                       and I'm getting tired
 G
         Am
               Fm
                                                          G Am Em
Then he sold his nose
                                                       Life is nothing but a joke
F G C G
                                                       F G C G
for an unknown guy
                                                       and I'm getting tired
C G Am Em
                                                       C G Am Em
A strange guy that some F G C G
                                                       Life is nothing but a joke
F G
                                                           G C
people used to call god
                                                       and I'm getting tired
                                                       C G Am Em
                                                       Life is nothing but a joke
Well, I guess he was really needing
                                                       F G C G and I'm getting tired...
             Bb7
A new nose and I'm not kidding
             Bb7
                                                       (intro 2x)
```

Acordes

