[Primeira Parte]

Next to Hudson Yards Gm
It's crowded on the weekdays F7
Dm From April to May
G Parse apart a troubled heart Bb7
F7 From an E Train
Dm C Bb7 And sing about it in A

[Segunda Parte]

Gm F7 With clouds in the rearview
Dm You start humming along
G To the first verse
Bb7 Of your favorite song
F7 That you quote each day
Dm With the words all wrong

[Refrão]

Bb7 Gm So call me when the world looks bleak
F7 Dm I love you but it's hard to believe
G Bb7 With every day we'll start to see
F7 Dm

The rest is metamodernity

( Bb7 Gm F7 )
( Dm G Bb7 F7 )
( Dm Bb7 )

[Terceira Parte]

Gm With agrestic charm
F7 It's humid in the Midwest
Dm C7 From June to July
G Bb7 All beneath a pinkish sky
F7 From the wildfires
Dm C Bb7 Which mantle the horizon line
( Gm F7 Dm )

[Quarta Parte]

C G From the outset
Bb7 It's been hard to tell
F7 Why I'd feel this down
Dm C When it all bodes well

[Refrão]

Bb7 Gm So call me when the world looks bleak
F7 Dm I love you but it's hard to believe
G Bb7 With every day we'll start to see
F7 Dm The rest is metamodernity

[Final] Bb7 Gm F7
Dm G Bb7 F7
Dm F
