

Stevie Ray Vaughan - Say What

Tom: E

Organ Solo

Album: ???

I tabbed this all by ear and it took me about three days. It's not perfect but i'd say 90-95% correct. Also, I wanted to point out that I don't think its from the soul to soul because i looked for it on yahoo to hear a sample, and SRV uses a wah pedal. On this he doesn't. It still sounds cool though with a wah but i think he uses only a little

I have no idea what version this is or on what album its from but its the best that i've out of all of them. I found it on Ares or something like that. It's not the one from SNL, Daytona Beach, or Soul to Soul. If anyone knows where it's from please let me know.

to tune down half a step. Also if you can't find this version, let me and i'll attach it to an e-mail and mail it to you. This is SRV at his best.

Suggestions please post them and i'll be sure to read them.
