[Segunda Parte]

We will think on You in the garden
In the loneliness of Your grief
To the least and last You are calling
We will remember You, we will remember
You. Oh

[Refrão]

Bring the bread, pour the wine
There is room at the table
All we need, You supply
There is room at the table

We will remember You

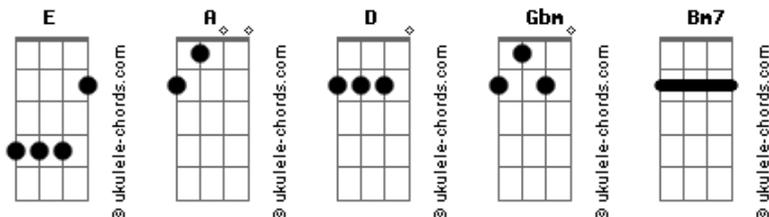

[Terceira Parte]

For the joy that was set before You
You took on the shame that was ours
Knowing past that pain was our freedom
We will remember You, we will remember
You. Oh

[Refrão]

Bring the bread, pour the wine
There is room at the table
