Someone has taken your love, its true isn't it?
Its not just talk that I hear
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            It's time to move on
