  Abm
I'm walking in the night
          Gb                 Abm
How many thoughts are calling me?
                              B
Couldn't keep all of them in my mind
        Gb
They're here
  Abm
Down to the floor I kneel
          Gb
Facing the vault of Heaven
  Abm
Trying to stop the tears
B          Gb
I search for haven

   A     B       Gb  Dbm
Where are you now?
            A           B              Dbm      B
I am searching through the stars to find your light tonight
A    B   Gbm Dbm
In this silence
E           Gb    Ab
I close my eyes, save me!

        Dbm         B       Gbm
Violet loneliness I know you
          Dbm
Feeling alone and fool
          B                Abm
And you're coming with your blue
        Dbm         B       Gbm
Violet loneliness I love you
```
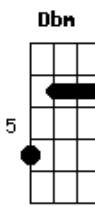

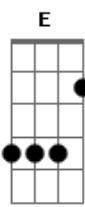

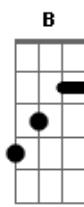

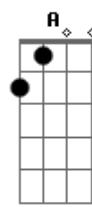

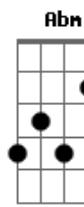

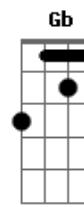

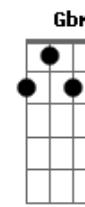

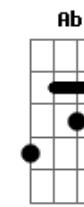

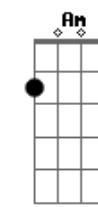

```
                       Dbm
You come to give me pain
            B              Abm
But you are my only friend
          Dbm
You come tonight
            E
But I won't fight
          Dbm              B
'Cause you are the one

  Abm
If I'd be born again
            Gb           Abm
I'd be a swan, I'd fly away
To the horizon, with breeze in my face
      Gb
Goodbye

   A     B  Gbm  Dbm
Come and hold me
   E         Gb    Ab
Open your arms, I'm here

        Dbm         B       Gbm
Violet loneliness I know you
          Dbm
Feeling alone and fool
          B                Abm  Ab
And you're coming with your blue
        Dbm         B       Gbm
Violet loneliness I love you
          Dbm
You come to give me pain
            B          Abm
But you are my only friend
          A            Am
You come tonight
```
