Intro: ^G

^{Em} ^C ^D ^D

Now as our ^G poor young lungs ^{B7} deflate
I'll admit I've gotten older
Mellowed out, chatting up those I used to hate ^D ^D
The feeling that we're lost will always fade
I present no explanation
Can't expect our tired patience to satiate for long

[Refrão]

And therein lies a ^C truth we can sip when we ^G want
Disciples of the ^C flow we can float anywhere
If ever there's a ^C drought I've listed the puddles
Proven to better coax the divine out from within

^G ^{B7} ^{Em} ^C
Bum, bum, bum, buh duh duh, dum

^G
Buh duh, duh duh, duh duh, duh duh duh
^{Em} ^C ^D
Duh duh duh, duh duh, duh, dum

^G ^{B7}
Remember there's more road, and places to go
^{Em} ^C
And patterns to contemplate, more people to fornicate

^G
And remember there's a lot of good omens
^{Em} ^C ^D
Supplying the proof that our life is the best joke ever told

^G ^{B7}
Remember its a joke, and leave it alone
^{Em} ^C
Let go and try to be always abiding
^G ^{Em}

Remember if there's one good reason for dying
The sweet silver lining, through you she lives on ^D
[Refrão]

And therein lies a ^C coast we can see through the ^G fog
An island in our thoughts can be heaven on Earth
I swear to God if I haven't wandered all over then

^G ^{B7} ^{Em} ^{Em}
Bum, bum, bum, buh duh duh, dum

^C
Buh duh, duh duh, duh duh, duh duh duh

^D ^C
After the hell that you've been through, what could I even say?
^G ^{B7}
Our Auntie Earth will take us in
^C ^G
She awaits our battered shells
^C ^G ^D
I'll try to lay as close as I can to you
^D
But while we're breathing I should tell you
From the ^G depths of the void I will ^{B7}
^C ^G
Love you for your growing crows feet
^C ^G ^D ^D
And fully adore the contradictions that we live, as all I can give

^G ^{B7} ^{Em} ^{Em}
Bum, bum, bum, buh duh duh, dum
