

We the Lion - So Fine

Tom:

Intro: Cause you're fine, so fine
I know you'll be mine

I can't control my feelings. I try to figure out

Don't know what's going on, what's going on

I feel the world is spinning, so fast I can't hold on

Should I go say hello, should I go say hello?

You can see me move, I know something is going on
Now I'm walking down to you, I ain't got nothing to lose
You can see me move, I know something is going on
Now I'm walking down to you, I ain't got nothing to lose

`Cause you're fine so fine
I know you'll be mine woaaa woaaa uh!

`Cause you're fine so fine
I know you'll be mine woaaa woaaa uh!

I feel the vibe you're giving, somehow I can't hold back
Don't know what's going on, what's going on?
I see in her eyes she's willing and knows it turns me on

Should I go say hello? Should I go say hello?

You can see me move, I know something is going on
Now I'm walking down to you, I ain't got nothing to lose
You can see me move, I know something is going on
Now I'm walking down to you, I ain't got nothing to lose

`Cause you're fine so fine
I know you'll be mine woaaa woaaa uh!
`Cause you're fine so fine
I know you'll be mine woaaa woaaa uh!

Feel me shaking, feel my bones
I've been waiting all night long
All I'm asking is close your eyes
Baby just let go, baby just let go

`Cause you're fine so fine
I know you'll be mine woaaa woaaa uh!
`Cause you're fine so fine
I know you'll be mine woaaa woaaa uh!
