

Paul Weller - On Sunset

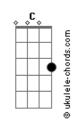

```
But the world I knew
                         tom:
                                                          Am
Intro: Gm Gm7 C Gm Gm7 C Gm Gm7 C
                                                          Has all moved on
       Am D Am D C Gm
                                                          All the places that we used to go
                                                          C7M Bm
                                                          Belong?to a time
[Primeira Parte]
                                                          C7M
                                                                   Bm
     Gm7 C
                                                          Someone?else's life
I was gonna say hi
                                                          C7M Eb7M Dm
                                                          Another time
      Gm7 C
But no one there
             Gm7 C
                                                          [Solo] Gm Gm7 C Gm Gm7
                                                                Gm Gm7 C Gm Gm7 C
Gm Gm7 C Gm Gm7 (
There's me forgetting
             Gm7 C
Gm
Just how long it's been
                                                                Gm Gm7 C Gm Gm7 C Am
                   Gm Gm7 C
And the?palm?trees sway
                                                          [Refrão]
                  Gm Gm7 C
As a?warm breeze blew
                Gm Gm7 C
                                                          And the world I knew
And the sun was?high
                                                          Am D
                                                         Has all gone by
C Gm Gm7 C
On Sunset
                                                                           D
                                                          All the?places?we?used to go
[Refrão]
                                                          C7M Bm
                                                          Belong?to a time
Am
                                                                   Bm
And the world I knew
                                                          C7M
Am D
                                                          Someone?else's life
Has all gone by
                                                          C7M Eb7M Dm
                                                                              G
                                                          Another time
Αm
All the?places?we?used to go
                                                          ( Gm C Gm C )
( Gm C Gm C )
C7M
        Bm
Belong?to a time
C7M Bm
Someone?else's life
C7M Eb7M Dm G
                                                          [Terceira Parte]
                                                          С
Another time
                                                                              Gm Gm7 C
                                                          And the?palm?trees sway
C
                                                                           Gm Gm7 C
                                                          As a?warm breeze blew
                                                                         Gm Gm7 C
                                                          And the sun was high, high
[Segunda Parte]
                                                         Higher than it ever been before
                                                          {\sf C} {\sf Gm} {\sf Gm7} {\sf C} And the palm trees sway palm trees sway
          Gm7 C
No long goodbyes
                                                                        Gm Gm7 C
                Gm7 C
I have no point to prove
                                                          As a?warm breeze blew
                                                                      Gm Gm7 C
                                                          C
Take a drink in the Whiskey
                                                          And it blew my mind
               Gm7 C
                                                          C
                                                                  Gm Gm7 C
Moved on to the Rainbow
                                                                  Gm Gm7 C
               Gm Gm7 C
                                                          C
And the palm trees sway
                                                          On Sunset
C Gm Gm7 C
                                                                   Gm Gm7
                                                          C
They say good day
                                                          On Sunset
                 Gm Gm7 C
                                                                   Gm Gm7
And the sun was high, high
                                                          On Sunset
C Gm Gm7 C
                                                          C
                                                                  Gm Gm7 C
On Sunset
                                                          On Sunset
                                                          C
                                                                  Gm Gm7 C
[Refrão]
                                                          On Sunset
```

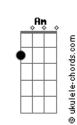

Acordes

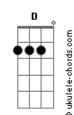

ukulele-chords.com

