

Paul Weller - Still Galdes In The Stream

```
tom:
                                                         Yes, he knew it was sooner or later
                                                              Dm
                                                                      C
Intro: Am Em G
                                                         Yes, he knew it was sooner or later
      Am Em G
                                                              Dm
                                                                       С
                                                         Yes, he knew it was sooner or later
[Primeira Parte]
                                                              Dm C G
                                                         Yes, he knew it was sooner or later
         Fm
The man who never was
                                                         [Solo] Am Em G
Am Em
                                                               Am Em G
                G
Painted images of freedom
Am Em G
                                                         [Terceira Parte]
He never sold a lot
It wasn't what his public wanted
                                                         Be careful with what you ignore
                                                                      Em
                                                         Am
Still glides the stream
                                                         Look for greatness in the small
                                                                      Em
[Segunda Parte]
                                                         For the man who never was \mathsf{Am}
                                                                       Em
            Em
                                                         Still knows what his public needed
He played in scenes from dreams
                                                                 Em
                                                         Yes, he knows what his public needed
        Em
Ignored his friends' divisions
                                                         Still glides the stream
Dm
           C
Cleaned our dirty streets well
                                                                             G Am
                                                         Still glides the stream
And worked to make things clearer
                                                                             G F
                                                         Still glides the stream
Still glides the stream
                                                         [Quarta Parte]
                    G Am
Still glides the stream
                                                         Raised in the time of darkness
Still glides the stream
                                                         Am G F G
                                                         The ancients in his hair
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                         Am
                                                                 G
                                                         Born in the thunder and lightning

Am G F G Am G F G
C7M
All the colours that he saw
                                                         The man who was never there
The windmills by the banks
                                                         [Refrão]
G7M
                                                                G
And the journey he'd made
                                                                        F G
                                                         Still glides the stream
Saw his footprints in the sand
                                                         Am G F G
                                                         Still glides the stream
```

[Refrão] Acordes

