

Paul Weller - This Is No Time

tom:
Fm

[Primeira Parte]

This is no time for fumbling
This is no time for turning down
This is no age for wandering
All too much, we stumble and fall
We stumble and fall

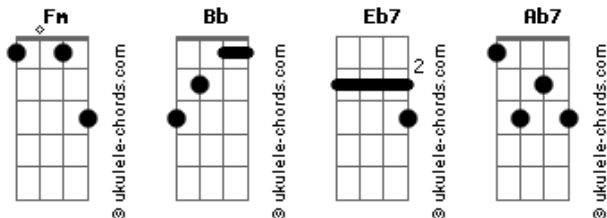

[Segunda Parte]

This is no time for mumbling
This is no time for forgetting your lines
This is no time for tumbling
All too much, we stumble and fall
We stumble and fall

[Terceira Parte]

This is no time for dreaming
When you sleep, you wake to find

Acordes

That something or someone
Has stolen your precious time
As you start to climb
[Bridge]
Oh, as you start to climb, yeah, yeah
As you start to climb
Yeah, yeah, oh, as you start to climb

[Quarta Parte]

This is no time to go missing
Though it is the time we'd like to most
This is no age to go fishing
All too soon it will be us getting caught
As we stumble and fall
To eat the crowd
