The tuning is a bit higher than E-tuning

G

Across the miles

It's funny to me

how far you are

but how near you seem to be

I could talk all night

just to hear you breathe

I could spend my life

just livin this dream

you're all I ever need chorus

you give me strength

you give me hope

you give me some one to love someone to hold when I'm in your arms

I need you to know

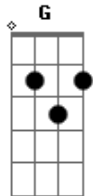

I've never been

never been this close
