

Whiskey Myers - Broken Window Serenade

Tom: C

Intro: C Em

C

A couple of pretty flowers

Is what I brought to you

I saw you through a broken window

With a different point of view

You had signs of depression

From a long line of sin

And your face tells a story

'Bout the places you have been

I love you so

I thought you should know

And that muddy waters flowin

As you take my hand

Past the creek down by the holler

Through your daddies land

I could buy you a diamond

But I cannot change your world

Cuz I ain't got no money

You'll never be my girl no no

I thought you should know

You was gonna be a singer

And a big movie star

But you can't catch no breaks baby

And Hollywood is hard

Now you work down at the time out

Off 155

And you're dancing for your dollar

Just tryin to stay alive

It hurts me so

Em

I thought you should know

You feed your addiction

With your crystal meth

Em

And I plea for your life

as it takes you to your death

You make your deal with the devil

As your looks begin to fade

Em

I saw you laughin through the tears

As you slowly slipped away

I watched you go

Em

I thought you should know

Yeah I watched you go

Em

I thought you should know

[Solo] C Em

That cold rain is pourin

As they lay you in a grave

Em

And I can barely recognize you

In your fragile state

No more signs of depression

From a long time ago

Em

I throw in a pretty flower

As they slowly laid you low, it was a rose

Em

I thought you should know

Yeah it was a rose

Em

I thought you should know
