

Whiskey Myers - Stone

Tom: G

Intro: Am F C
Am F C

Am F C
Well the night is my companion
Am F C
And the highway she's my home
Am F C
Got me seeking for one last beacon
Am F C
Every single place I roam
Am F C
They say Jesus was a poor man
Am F C
I guess I wish I had a little more of him in me
Am F C
Make it easy to go on living
Am F C
With heartache and misery

F C G
Sweet, Sweet heart of mine
Am F
I'm gonna break again a million times
F C G Am
Or is this too far gone
F C G Dm Am
Or have you turned to stone

(Am F C)
(Am F C)

Am F C
Well I guess I've got my bottle
Am F C
I stay on it all the time
Am F C
But it keeps me smiling and singing
Am F C

Helps me fall asleep a little bit better at night

Am F C
They say life is like a dagger
Am F C
Backstage is full of parasites
Am F C
They'll love and drain you of everything you want
Am F C
Just to feel better about their lives

F C G
Sweet, Sweet heart of mine
Am F
I'm gonna break again a million times
F C G Am
Or is this too far gone
