

Whitesnake - Don't Fade Away

Tom: A

Tom :A

Intro: A

As I stand at the crossroad,
I see the sun sinking low...
With my cross of indecision,
I can't tell which way to go...
Now I have seen the seven wonders
And I have sailed the seven seas,
I've walked and talked with angels,
And danced all night with gypsy queens...
All in all it's been a rocky road,
Twists and turns along the way...
But, I still pray for tomorrow,
All my hopes, my dreams
Don't fade away... Don't fade away...
I have painted many portraits,
Memories of love and pain,
Though cut down by life's deceptions
I found the strength to start again...
All in all it's been a rocky road,

Twists and turns along the way...

But, I still pray for tomorrow,

All my hopes, my dreams

Don't fade away... Don't fade away...

Heaven help a man

Trying to make up his mind,

With the darkness closing in,

I feel I'm running out of time...

Shine a light for me,

Help me find the way to go,

And take me where I've never been before...

And so I stand at the crossroad,

Watching the sun sinking low...

With my cross of indecision,

Trying to find the way to go...

All in all it's been a rocky road,

Twists and turns along the way...

But, I still pray for tomorrow,

All my hopes, my dreams

Don't fade away... Don't fade away...Don't fade away...
