A D A E G E G A
One last call and I'm feeling drunk again
A D A E G E G A
Got this old guitar and some skinny cigarettes
A D A E G E G A
Not quite sure just exactly where I am
But tomorrow I'll be home and it won't matter where I've been

D A E
When the sun comes up in the morning
D A E
I'll be well on my way home
  D A E Gbm
Darling now's the time to dry your eyes
E D A
Cause I'll be holding you in the morning light

A
These days that I've been gone are the longest that I've seen
A
From Austin to LA, and everywhere between
A D A E G E G A
Don't you worry baby I'll be coming home again
I'll be walking up your road I'll be holding out my hand

D A E
When the sun comes up in the morning
D A E
I'll be well on my way home
  D A E Gbm
Darling now's the time to dry your eyes
E D A
Cause I'll be holding you in the morning light
  E D
I'll be holding on to you in the morning light
