

Will Wood And The Tapeworms - Cicada Days

tom:
D

The greener grass grows where the wildfires fertilize
D

With ashes of sparrows, peppered moths, and butterflies.
Em

Ghosts of
G

Trees and termites
D

Bloom in the beanstalk
D

And if you get lightheaded when standing too fast, is it from
D

Shaking out the weight of phosphenes and past salt deposits,
Em

on
G

Warm little rivers
D

That burst from our words
D

[Pré-Refrão]

A G D

And god knows crying ain't gonna change a thing
A G D D7M D7

She said "take care" but I take more than I bring
D

[Refrão]

G D

She said, "It just feels inhumane to lose this much
Em G D D7M

D7

'Cause when you leave you know you take more than your love."
G D

Just one week of cicada days, we're losing touch
Em G D

And I know it just feels inhumane to lose this much
D

(Em G)

[Primeira Parte]

D

Our nerves were braided under ceiling stars, that were all
D

Glow in the dark, hanging over queen-sized
Em G D Em G

Acordes

D7M

D

Em

G

A

D7

Purple waves of ancient chemicals. Just whisper

D

Did you ever build with those endangered bones? Well the
D7 Em G

Ground looks soft enough to bury this now. Ohhhh
D

Please, oh no
D

[Pré-Refrão]

A G D

And then my sponsor said "Do nothing. Nothing works."
A G D D7M

D7

And then my doctor said "Don't do that if it hurts."
D

[Refrão]

G D

She said, "It just feels inhumane to lose this much
Em G D

'Cause when you leave you know you take more than your love."
G D

The seasons of cicada days we can't make up
Em G D

And I know it just feels inhumane to lose this much, woah
D

[Ponte]

G G D

Let all my red flags fade to white, yeah, I give up
G G D

Don't let me leave, I'll only take more than I gave. Okay,
I'll pack my stuff
G D

G D

Here at the end of days, my god, what have I done
Em G D

Christ, now it feels damn inhumane to get all I've dreamed of
Em G D

Woahhhh!

[Final]

D

Keep coming back, it works if you work it
D

So work it, you're worth it, it won't if you don't
Em G D

One day at a time, tomorrow's too late, amen