Willie Nelson - Poncho And Lefty

tom:	G D A The dust that Pancho bit down south ended up in Lefty's mouth
D A Living on the road my friend, is gonna keep you free and clean	The day they laid poor Pancho low, Lefty split for Ohio $\frac{Bm}{Bm}$ $\frac{G}{G}$ $\frac{D}{A}$ $\frac{A}{G}$ $\frac{Bm}{Bm}$ $\frac{Bm}{Bm}$ A $\frac{G}{G}$ Where he got the bread to go, there ain't nobody knows
Now you wear your skin like iron, Your breath as hard as kerosene G D G You weren't your mama's only boy, but her favorite one it	GDGAll the Federales say they could have had him any dayBmGDAGBmA DThey only let him slip away out of kindness, I suppose seems Bm G D A G Bm Bm A D She began to cry when you said goodbye, And sank into your dreams	D A The poets tell how Pancho fell, and Lefty's living in cheap hotels G D A
D A Pancho was a bandit boy, his horse was fast as polished steel G D A	The desert's quiet, Cleveland's cold, And so the story ends we're told G D G Pancho needs your prayers it's true, but save a few for Lefty
He wore his gun outside his pants. For all the honest world to feel G D G Pancho met his match you know on the deserts down in Mexico	too Bm G D A G Bm Bm A G He only did what he had to do, and now he's growing old
Bm G D A G Bm Bm A G Nobody heard his dying words, ah but that's the way it goes C	G D G All the Federales say they could have had him any day Bm G D A G Bm Bm
All the Federales say they could have had him any day Bm G D A G Bm Bm A D They only let him slip away out of kindness, I suppose	They only let him go so long out of kindness, I suppose G D G A few gray Federales say they could have had him any day
D A Lefty, he can't sing the blues all night long like he used to	Bm G D A G Bm G D
