

Willow Smith - Boy

Tom: G

A
Hey mom, I met a boy
G
He plays guitar
A
He likes Quentin Tarantino
G
And really sad songs
A Em
Anxiety attacks when he wakes up in the morning
A Em
And I can't help the thought he thinks I'm boring
A Em
'Cause I come from a cluster of super bright stars
A Em
And probably to him it feels scary to reach that far
A Em
But down on Earth there's so much pain
A Em
But way up here we explore galaxies
A
Hey mom, I met a boy
G
He's super sad

A
But I think that I love him
G
Is that bad?
A Em
Anxiety attacks when I wake up in the morning
A
Dude, how come? This is wack
Em
Is love just torment?
A Em
But they say life has a silver lining
A Em
And I say I will find it my way
A Em
'Cause down on Earth theres so much pain
A Em
And way up here there's galaxies
A G
Hey God, are you there? I need to talk
A G
I feeling love is here and then is not
A G
We hysterically cry when we wake up in the morning
A G
Could you please tell us why life feels like torment?
