

Yellow Days - A Little While

Tom: B

Intro: Abm Bbm

Abm Bbm
Broken by the love

Abm
This hurt divides itself

Bbm Abm
Decided that kissing you is bad for my health

Bbm
So I'm gonna ride

Abm
I'm going the other way

Bbm
I would've told you why

Abm
If there was any space for me

Bbm
To say, to say

Ebm Bbm
Oh don't you see it now?

Abm Bbm
I'm staying for a little while
Ebm Bbm

Oh don't you see it now?

Abm Bbm
I'm staying for a little while

I looked you right in your eye
And asked you why it has to be this way
I don't know
And to my surprise, you did say
This is just you and I babe
You and I babe

Oh don't you see it now?
I'm staying for a little while
Oh don't you see it now?
I'm staying for a little while

So I'm gonna ride
I'm going the other way
I would've told you why
If there was any space for me
To say, to say

Oh don't you see it now?
I'm staying for a little while
Oh don't you see it now?
I'm staying for a little while
