A grew soul, purple and blue

But I think I've found something in you

You hold my hand so close between yours

All of this time I always thought it would be your hand

Holding mine

Oh, holding mine

Oh, holding mine

Oh, holding mine

Oh, holding mine

Holding mine

Always thought it would be your hand

For these days I just count the hours

Oh, shape shifting boy in all of those scours

You hold my hand so close between yours

Holding mine

Thought it would be your hand
