Verse
Pm	For you to call your own
..	And I can feel you breathing
	And it's keeping me awake
	Can you feel it beating?
	My heart's sinking
	Like a weight
	Something I've be keeping locked away behind my lips
	I can feel it breaking free
	With each and every kiss
	I couldn't bear to hurt you
	But it's all so different now
	Things that I was of then
	Have filled me up with doubt
Pm	And I can feel you breathing
..	And it's keeping me awake
	Can you feel it beating?
	My heart's sinking
	Like a weight
Pm
Chorus
	And I can feel you breathing
	And it's keeping me awake
	Couldnt stop my heart
	It's always beating
	Sinking like a weight
Repeat verse
Repeat chorus
Bridge
	How am I supposed to feel
	About the things I've done
	I don't know if I should stay
	Or turn around and run
	I know that I hurt you;
	Things will never be the same
	The only love I ever knew
	I threw it all away
	And I can feel you breathing
	And it's keeping me awake
	Can you feel it beating?
	My heart's sinking
	Like a weight
	And I can feel you breathing
	And its keeping me awake
	Couldn't stop my heart
	It's always beating
Repeat chorus
Eyes are feeling heavy
But they never seem to close
The fan blades on the ceiling spin
But the air is never cold
Even though you're next to me
I still feel so alone
I just can't give you anything
