

Yungatita - 7 Weeks & 3 Days

tom: D

Intro:

[Primeira Parte]

G Gb
When we met, I just knew
D
That I already loved you, true, true
G Gb
I didn't even get it why
D
Why you gotta stare with those eyes?
G Gb
I'm right across the dance floor
D
Like it was just last night
G Gb
I didn't even get it why
D
Why you gotta say goodbye?

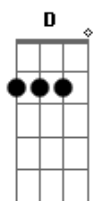

[Refrão]

G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days

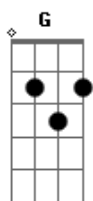

[Segunda Parte]

G Gb
Boy, I let you in
D
You didn't even have to knock
G Gb
An extra key on the first day
D
I know the sheets by the first date
G Gb
We really made something
D
A miracle that most won't see
G Gb
But it meant a lot to me
D

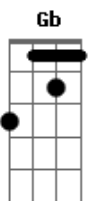

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

I don't get why you had to leave

[Refrão]

G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
[Terceira Parte]

G Gb
All my friends say "fuck you"
D
But I can't even help but love you
G Gb
And even though you run me out dry
D
I still think you're a decent guy
Why?

[Interlúdio] G Gb D
G Gb D

[Refrão]

G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days
G Gb
I should have called him by his last name
D
It's been seven weeks and three days, days