

Yutaka - Life Is So Good

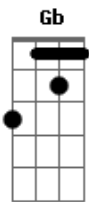

tom:

When you are trying to forget
All of you have done
Please just smile, no regrets
You should feel for what it comes
'Cause life is so good
Full of things that you could be so proud
And time is unfair
So don't give up, never a step back
No step back
Let it go
Take your thoughts until the moon
Stay a while and feel your soul
Let it go push all away
I am here to help you stand
Let it go, I am here, you know, to help you stand
Let it go, I am here, you know, to hold your hand
When you feel like ?no more ways?
Scream a loud ?i don't accept it?
Look around, just feel the breeze

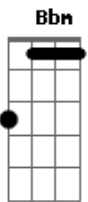

Then you say how blessed you are

'Cause life is so good
Full of things that you could be so proud
And time is unfair
So don't give up, never a step back
No step back
Let it go
Take your thoughts until the moon
Stay a while and feel your soul
Let it go push all away
I am here to help you stand
Take your thoughts until the moon
Stay a while and feel your soul
Let it go push all away
I am here to help you stand
Let it go, I am here, you know, to help you stand
Let it go, I am here, you know, to hold your hand
Let it go, I am here, you know, to help you stand
Let it go, I am here, you know, to hold your hand
Hold your hand
