

Zach Bryan - Dawns

tom:

Intro: F Am G C

[Primeira Parte]

F
Wake me up when the season's gone
'Cause I've wasted all my dawns on you
So what do I do?
Oh, what do I do?

[Segunda Parte]

F
I get fucked up just 'cause I'm scared love's
Just another drug I have grown a victim to
So what do I do?
Oh, what do I do?

[Terceira Parte]

F
All is fair in love and war
so what the hell are we even fighting for?
Am
I'm on your front porch begging for my dawns back,
give me my goddamn records and my clothes back
'Cause I'm through
Oh, how I'm through

[Pré-Refrão]

F
And by the time she wakes, I'll be halfway
C
To my momma's home
G
It just dawned on me life is as fleeting
Am
As the passing dawn
F
And it was my mistake
C
'Cause she never said a thing about Jesus
G
I miss my mother's southern drawl
Am
And her praying through the walls in the evening

[Refrão]

F
Give me my dawns back
C
Everything that dies makes its way back
G
I lost her last July in a heart attack
Am
I need one small victory
F

Acordes

Give me my dawns back
C
Everything that dies makes its way on back
G
I lost her last July in a heart attack
Am
I need one small victory
(F C G Am)

[Primeira Parte]

F
Wake me up when the season's gone
Am
'Cause I've wasted all my dawns on you
G
So what do I do?
C
Oh, what do I do?

[Pré-Refrão 2]

F
And by the time he wakes, I'll be halfway
C
To my best friend's home
G
It just dawned on me life is as fleeting
Am
As the passing dawn
F
And I should have told him twice
C
I believe in something bigger than both of us
G
I miss going out to bars, shooting stars
Am
Not worrying 'bout what's left of us

[Refrão]

F
Give me my dawns back
C
Everything that dies makes its way on back
G
I lost her last July in a heart attack
Am
I need one small victory
F
Give me my dawns back
C
Everything that dies makes its way on back
G
I lost her last July in a heart attack
Am
I need one small victory
(F C Am G)

[Segunda Parte]

F
I got fucked up just 'cause I'm scared love's
Am
Just another drug I have grown a victim to
G
So what do I do?
C
Oh, what do I do?

