

Zach Bryan - Hey Driver

tom:

[Refrão]

So take me down a road that's a little
Bit windy
To a place where they still put sugar in
Their iced tea
Where the women are fine and the love is
Fair
Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere
(F)
[Primeira Parte]

Hey driver, pull on over, I'm in a fight
With God
This Carolina shoulder seems the place
I'm gettin' off
Daddy always told me never make a home
On the road
While your lady's sneakin' out and the Kids are growin' old
Hey driver, I've been ridin' this lonely
Way too long
All the love I had worth givin' was all
Spent on my song
Hey driver, the boys are gamblin' with
More than just their cards
With their bottles and their drugs, and
Their Bibles and their hearts

[Refrão]

So take me down a road that's a little
Bit windy
To a place where they still put sugar in
Their iced tea
Where the women are fine and the love is
Fair
Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere

Acordes

Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere
(F)
[Segunda Parte]

Hey driver, I've been feelin' like
There's no point at all
The Klonopin ain't kicked in and I
Missed my sister's call
Hey driver, I'm so tired of the ways of
This old world
Let's drive until the tires melt we'll
Come back when it's healed
[Refrão]

So take me down a road that's a little
Bit windy
To a place where they still put sugar in
Their iced tea
Where the women are fine and the love is
Fair
Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere
Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere
Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere

[Final]

So take me down a road that's a little
Bit windy
To a place where they still put sugar in
Their iced tea
Where the women are fine and the love is
Fair
Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere
Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere
Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere
Hey driver, you can drop me off anywhere
