

Zach Bryan - Towers

tom:

Intro: Four, three, two, one

(C F C F C)

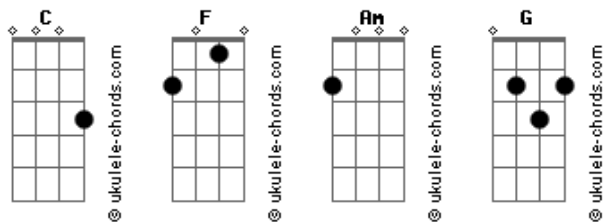

[Primeira Parte]

C F C
Play me something gently, I'm across the ocean missin' home
F C C Am C C
There are lights on sparklin' towers that shine dark when seen alone
C F C
Somewhere there's a mountain that overlooks the sea
F C C Am C C
I wonder if that mountain has got more rock than my band and me
C F C
And I ain't no victim to a naive boy's dreams
F C C Am C C
But I wish you were here now to see these damned old sparklin' things

[Refrão]

F C
It's a long road to heaven (Long road)
G Am
It's a far drop to hell
F C
I pray we outlive this fountain (Pray we outlive)
G Am
I reckon time will tell
F C
The stronger folks keep goin'
G Am
No matter where they've been (No matter where they've been)
F C
And there are lights on sparklin' towers
G Am
That I'll never see again (I'll never see them again)

Acordes

[Segunda Parte]

C F C
I am not the person that I was yesterday
F C C Am C C
And the things I'm seeing now will never be the same
C F C
Do you think God's a person or the blinking lights?
F C C Am C C
They reflect in her eyes while she walks these streets at night
C F C
Do you think God's a person or is He just the sound
F C C Am C C
Of laughter through the walls in a place I haven't found?

[Refrão]

F C
It's a long road to heaven (Long road)
G Am
It's a far drop to hell
F C
I pray we outlive this fountain (Pray we outlive)
G Am
I reckon time will tell
F C
The stronger folks keep goin'
G Am
No matter where they've been (No matter where they've been)
F C
And there are lights on sparklin' towers
G Am
That I'll never see again (I'll never see them again)

[Final]

C F C
Do you think God's a person or is He just the sound
F C C Am C C
Of early mornin' creakin' on some floors way out of town?
C F C
I'm breathin' in a life and my legs are workin' fine
F C C Am C C
Do you think God's a person or the slowly passin' time?
