

Zak Azoury - Medusa

tom: Bm [Intro]
Bm7

There's a beat in the breeze, a sway in the trees
A rhythm in the night that ignites your feet
Four on the floor, fire in the sky
So why'd the world stop spinning when your hand met mine?

Oh, the city's alive, but I'm in a trance
Darling, I'm frozen just by your glance
I'm the stone that's been turned, it's too late to flee
Darling, just one look is Medusa to me

Have you ever been sleeping, and then you awake
But can't move a muscle when you try?
Darling, just one look, I'm paralyzed

Oh, the city's alive, but I'm in a trance
Darling, I'm frozen just by your glance
I'm the stone that's been turned, it's too late to flee
Darling, just one look is Medusa to me

The guitar strums softly, a tale to confess
A lovely creature, her sweet caress

With a stare so pure, a gaze so fine
I'll be hers alone till the end of time
