Intro: C  G  Am  F

You see well
C
 I remember how you said
G                                   Am                        F
That sometimes it gets just a little hard being home

  C
There?s sand stuck in my bed
G
And memories in my head
 Am                                          F
Love I?ve been trying to let this whole thing go

  C                              G
See it was late I dropped you home because we were sober
Am                                F
And you said well why don?t you stay

I said love it's just a little late
  G                        Am  F
For you to be seeing me this way
See I
 C                                      G
Well I kept my guard up in case you let me down
   Am                        F                    C
But you can?t blame that I wasn?t always around

C                          G                    Am          F
