

Ziggy Marley - Garden Song Of Miracles

tom:
C
Whoa, whoa, the miracles of life surround us every day

Em C G
And in the simple things is where they love to play

Em C G
Now look around and tell me, what do you see?

Em C G
The tiniest thing became a giant tree
Giant tree

Give I the rain, give I the sun, give I the moon, the only one
Give I the rain, give I the sun, give I the moon for everyone

C G Am
Oh, oh, oh, what a joy it is to plant one and reap many

C G Am
Oh, what a joy it is to plant one and reap many

C G Am
Oh, what a joy it is to plant one and reap many

G
Give I the lizard, give I the worms, give I the bees, give I the birds

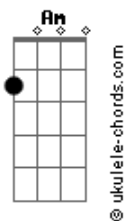

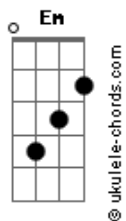

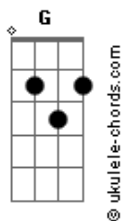

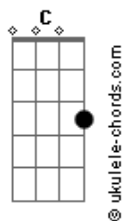

I'll lay the bug, the beetle too, there's so much good that they will do

Yeah

C G Am
Oh, what a joy it is to plant one and reap many

C G Am
Yeah, what a joy it is to plant one and reap many

Acordes

C G Am
Yeah, oh, what a joy it is to plant one and reap many

Em C G
Cause the miracles of life surround us every day

Em C G
And in the simplest things is where they love to play

Em C G
Now look around and tell me, what do you see?

Em C G
The tiniest thing became a giant tree
Giant tree

Give I the earth, give I the dirt, let's plant the seed and watch it grow

Give I the earth, give I the dirt, let's watch the vegetables grow

C G Am
Yeah, yeah. Oh, what a joy it is to plant one and reap many

C G Am
Yeah, what a joy it is to plant one and reap many

C G Am
Yes, what a joy it is to plant one and reap many

Em C G
The miracles of life surround us every day

Em C G
And in the simplest things is where they love to play

Em C G
So look around, look up and down, and tell me, what did you see?

Em C G
Cause you're a miracle to me
